

Marc Jeuniaux is the Head of Administration ECSEL Joint Undertaking, and before that was the Head of Administration and Finance of the ENIAC Joint Undertaking. Prior to this position, he has been the Head of Administration in EU Agencies for Fisheries, for Maritime Safety and for Fundamental Rights, as well as principal administrator in the European Commission in charge of the internal coordination, budget and finance, and relations with the European Parliament. Marc started his career in the Ministry for Finance in France, working in the anti-trust regulations, public works and banking sectors. Marc has a master degree in economics, business management and international relations.